

I believe that it is imperative that the 35% rule, which I understand to be that no single person or entity may own more than 35% of media communications, must be retained. An independent media is critical to a democracy, and we already see ownership consolidating in fewer and fewer hands.

Please to not make monopoly ownership easier. Thank you.

Sincerely, Garland Harris